Local Rustlings.
Autumn leaves will soon color the mountain sides.

The interior of the Grand Central Hotel is being repainted.

There isn't a word of dry reading in the RUSTLER's make-up this week.

Simon Davis is doing a good business in fresh meats, vegetables and fruits.

The ordinances adopted by the town board will be ready for publication next week.

Yesterday afternoon twenty coal cars were being loaded from wagons on the Cerrillos side tracks.

Mrs. Rasmussen supplies a splendid table for her boarders, and the boarders are a lot of lucky gentlemen.

Geo. Green went back to the Jemez country yesterday, to resume his hunt for the remaining lost horse.

The coal trade is living up very perceptibly. It will likely increase within another month ten car loads a day.

Again a scarcity of dwelling houses is being complained of. In this as in every other way are the signs getting better.

Our public school, which was expected to begin next Monday, has been delayed another week by the non arrival of furniture ordered.

A. Young has put down a water pipe from the town tank to his dwelling property. His house will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Andrews.

Mr. Ford killed a panther close to the old Simer ranch Sunday morning. The animal measured eight feet in length and had just killed a colt.

This paper has a well established horror of poetry and poets. Both are nearly always empty! What we want to give our readers is cold facts in plain prose.

The board of town trustees and editors of newspapers being ex-officio representatives to the railroad meeting at Albuquerque, this will give Cerrillos a delegation of 12.

Dick Mathews was so unfortunate as to lose his pocket book the first of this week, containing money and checks to the amount of $185.00. No trace of it has been so far obtained.

C. S. Potts, of Wishita, Indian Ter., writes that he wants to supply grain to people in this part of New Mexico, and that he thinks his country can furnish it cheaper than Kansas.

James Fenton drove a passenger down from Santa Fe yesterday. The railroad is not swift enough. Considerable travel now between this place and the capital takes the cross-cut overland.

Road and street commissioner, Tony Neis, has had men doing effective work on the roads all this week. W. E. Dame, with a force, has been doing some needed work on the Cash Entry road.

Peter Powers, of Glorieta, is refurnishing the San Pedro hotel from his Pecos Park house, just closed for the season. The San Pedro house will soon be open for the patronage of the public.

Mr. and Mrs. James Miller have a fine baby boy now three weeks old, and the RUSTLER knew nothing of it until Jim came around the front part of this week and wanted a "sit" for the boy on the compositor force.

Invitations are out for a birthday reception to-morrow (Saturday) evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Coleman, in honor of the 21st birthday anniversary of their son, W. H. Coleman, Jr.

From all reports, cupid is even now exceedingly busy in Cerrillos. It is said that six or eight couples have been badly hit with the cunning looking but dangerous little darts, and that the yoking process will follow.

Messrs. R. Kelley and Ed. E. Sluder, returned Sunday from their trip to Jemez Springs. Both seem wonderfully benefitted by the trip, and feel extra good over the recovery of one lost horse and a fair prospect of finding the other.

To an old school-mate of Uriah C. North, Mr. T. P. Gable and his most estimable wife, of Santa Fe—to their thoughtful consideration and remembrance, was due the beautiful floral tribute—the large wreath of cut flowers that rested on the casket of the deceased.

The following are subscribers to the RUSTLER since last report: Judge W. T. Thornton, Col. R. W. Webb, Santa Fe; Mrs. C. Doyle, Mrs. Rasmussen, F. M. Estes, Cerrillos; Jack Jones, San Pedro; J. R. Cushier, T. B. Lane, New York; Bank of Commerce, Albuquerque, Col. W. H. Weed, White Oaks.

Col. Weed, of White Oaks, arrived at his San Pedro store on Tuesday. John Strunquist, who had made a trip to the Oaks, also returned, coming overland. The Col. is the same jolly piece of humanity as of yore, though he says the unusually hot summer has caused him to loose 20 pounds in weight.

There appears to have been in the south Santa Fe county camps, an almost fatal reign of accidents for the past three months. In them George Drake, E. H. Dunbar and John Maddux, pioneer miners of these camps, have lost their lives, and a number of others have been badly hurt. It may be noticed as remarkable, that every one of the persons thus injured by accidents, were experienced miners and men noted for being cautious and careful.

Sisters Mary and Victoria came down from Santa Fe today with Col. and Mrs. R. W. Webb. They will visit the miners of the south part of the county in behalf of that most worthy institution, St. Vincent Sanitarium, Santa Fe. There is no need to praise this institution. The Sanitarium and the Sisters have a warm place in every heart. Let them not seek in vain for a little necessary assistance and deserved, well-earned support.

$1.00. Round Trip! $1.00.
To The Fair!

One Dollar for the round trip, is what the A. T. & S. F. will sell you tickets at to the Territorial Fair at Albuquerque. The tickets will be sold Sept. 13th to 18th, good to return until the 21st. No one can afford to stay at home when they can go for one-fourth price.

C. E. HARNEY, Agent.

O. W. Alexander is now at his cabin on the Pecos, doing assessment on mining properties. On a card written from Glorieta he says: "Send the RUSTLER to Glorieta until further notice. I have laid in a splendid stock of eatables and should be pleased to have you come up and camp with me while you do your bear killing." We would enjoy the camping, the trout fishing and the grouse shooting, but the bear hunting—please excuse us. We do not remember of having ever lost any bear.

It is said that the coal shippers of Cerrillos are at last getting down to business by pooling prices, and that no coal will now be loaded on cars here for less than $2.75 a ton. This is a step in the right direction and one which this paper has ever advocated. It is probable that $3 per ton would have been a more just value to place on the bituminous coal output of Cerrillos than would $2.75, but the latter will be a decided improvement over the past system of taking orders at any price in order to get them, so much practiced in the past, and which has resulted in disastrous losses to shippers, as well as merchants, who are almost of a necessity involved in every failure. It should be remembered by both shippers and dealers, that Cerrillos coals, because of their very superior quality, will command in market any reasonable price put upon them.

The rain came in torrents the latter part of last week, along the Rio Grand and up and down the Gallisteo. Whether the Socorro shooting had anything to do with it or not, would be hard to prove. The rains hereabouts all came from the immediate north, apparently rising out of the Cash Entry mine. The clouds may have been stationary though, standing right where the shots had paralyzed them, and the course of the earth in its regular swing around the circle, may have brought us under the leak. This seems an excellent year for the rainmakers. Melbourne is at Cheyenne, waiting for it to clear up and allow him half a chance to get a shower of his own in edgeways. He admits that his own brand and the Lord's are so near alike that either is liable to be mistaken for mavericks and run into the government herd, from whence, after they are once branded with brimstone and dynamite, and saltpeter rubbed in the scar, there is no such thing as reclaiming them.

The annual conference of the M. E. Church South, which held its session at El Paso last week, made the following appointments: El Paso district, J. M. Stevenson; El Paso station, W. D. Robinson; Deming, B. J. H. Thomas; San Marcial, S. W. Thomas; Socorro, C. H. Orvett; Magdalena, J. A. Crutchfield; Albuquerque, D. P. Brown; Cerrillos, W. B. Jennings; Las Vegas, B. J. Waugh. Rev. I. N. Crutchfield remains P. E., of the Eddy district, Elder Bush taking Roswell station. We hope Bro. Ike will take his and our old Elder across his knee as often as he may think it necessary, and sternly administer to him the code. Rev. J. M. Crutchfield, who has been stationed here the past year, goes to Alpine, also in the Eddy district. Though not always in the best of health, he has proven himself a preacher of good ability and a gentleman whose sympathies are as broad and deep as his views are liberal.

Crockery and fruit jars just in—best quality and great quantity, at Cerrillos Supply Co's.

Some interesting local matter on opposite page.

Personal Rustlings.

Father Defouri was down from Santa Fe Tuesday.

Geo. R. Bailey came over from San Pedro Saturday on a business trip.

Wm. Morris and wife have come back to Cerrillos from San Pedro, to live.

Manager McLaughlin came over from San Pedro, Sunday, returning Monday.

Attorney Baker and Geo. W. North made the trip to Santa Fe yesterday.

W. P. Gould made a flying business trip to Las Vegas towns and Watrous, yesterday.

Mr. John Brady, of Cerrillos, was registered at the Exchange, Santa Fe, Tuesday.

Miss Phania Uptegrove returned from her visit to Las Vegas and Springer, Wednesday.

Mrs. Judge Harkness and Mrs. Jackson, visited Mrs. S. C. White, of San Pedro, yesterday.

Hon. J. B. Mayo went to Santa Fe Tuesday to convene the board of county commissioners.

J. W. Schofield, the busy insurance man of Santa Fe, was rustling business among the Cerrillos people yesterday.

S. C. Wright, of Golden and Daniel Taylor, of Dolores, each passed through last week, bound to Santa Fe on mining business.

Mr. Geo. B. Anderson, nephew of Manager R. Y. Anderson, of the Lincoln-Lucky mine, is here with his young wife, from Denver.

Mrs. Nannie Bailey spent a part of last week visiting her parents and friends in Cerrillos, returning to San Pedro on Monday's stage.

F. H. Mitchell, of Wallace, was so unfortunate as to get an ankle injured the first of this week, which will lay him up for a little while.

C. A. Whited returned from a trip to Kansas, Wednesday. He reports good crops over the state—also to have disposed of the output of his anthracite coal bank for the coming season.

Charley Way arrived on Saturday and is now in charge of the Gerdes clothing store here. Carlos Probst, who has been with the store since it was founded, has gone to Santa Fe and will fill his old position in the Gerdes clothing house there.

San Pedro Rustlings.

W. S. Spencer made a trip to the railroad the first of the week.

V. Schick is busy with his teams between San Pedro and Cerrillos.

Some repairs were necessary on the smelter boiler furnace the first of this week.

San Pedro would deliver matte faster for shipment, if they could get more teams.

About all the miners arriving are being put to work as fast as they make application.

M. B. Bowman is still very sick with fever. A physician was telegraphed for yesterday from Albuquerque.

L. W. Morgan, the smelter man, has purchased the household goods of J. M. Evans, and is expecting his family to arrive from Denver.

Dr. Lane, N. J. Strunquist, Alex. Rogers, H. Goodman and Peter Mackel, have been appointed the San Pedro delegates to the railroad convention at Albuquerque on the 18th.

Col. W. H. Weed has bought out Richard Giblin, in the Copper Co. Store at San Pedro. It is reported that Mr. Giblin may open up business at Golden as soon as the new copper and gold working company gets to work.

OBITUARY.

DIED—At 11 o'clock a. m., Monday, August 31st 1891, at his home in Cerrillos, Uriah C. North, aged 41 years and nine months.

U. C. North had been a resident of Cerrillos for about two years, coming from Missouri where he had been actively engaged in business. He sought this climate for his health, suffering at the time from consumption and asthma.

On coming to Cerrillos he bought and improved property, and his family is left with a comfortable home.

Since his arrival here he has appeared at times greatly improved, occasionally suffering a relapse, during which periods he became quite despondent, and finally the end came, hastened by his own hand.

Scarcely a greater shock could have been given to the community. He was respected as an upright gentleman, a kind, considerate husband and an indulgent father, honorable in his citizenship and possessing a pride which characterizes strong individuality.

On Tuesday he was laid away by tender, respectful hands, after short funeral services had been conducted at the residence by Rev. C. I. Mills, of Santa Fe, assisted by Rev. J. M. Crutchfield, of Cerrillos. On the casket rested a beautiful wreath of cut flowers, contributed by friends at Santa Fe, their modest beauty seeming to have lulled to rest the soul that had been buffeted so cruelly by life's stormful waves, and their fragrance to symbolize the ethereal calm after the storm.

On the quiet hillside, in the shade of the cedars, he is resting. If in calling up his memory we drop a pitying tear, let us not withhold our sympathy from the orphaned ones, yet to learn almost all there is of life.

Card of Thanks.

We earnestly thank the people of Cerrillos and vicinity for their kind assistance during the dark hour of trouble and affliction thro' which we have been called upon to pass.

MRS. KATE NORTH.
Geo. W. North.
Mrs. Geo. W. North.

Town Board Proceedings.

The board of town trustees met at the office of the Grand Central Hotel on last Monday night and organized by selecting W. E. Dame as President of the board. No further business was transacted except to appoint Tony Neis as street commissioner and D. L. Miller, R. Green and C. W. Uptegrove a committee on ordinances. Adjourned to meet Wednesday night, Sept. 2nd. On Wednesday night a full attendance was had and after the minutes of the previous meeting had been approved, the board opened the business of the evening by appointing C. A. Whited as clerk and W. H. Kennedy treasurer. The ordinance committee made its report, recommending the adoption of suitable sections of the Santa Fe ordinances, properly changed to meet the case. This being agreed upon the board proceeded to adopt section by section, all of chapter one of said ordinances, and certain sections of other chapters, until the limit of time for the purpose expired, when the matter was laid on the table to be resumed at the adjourned meeting Sept. 4th, the same committee retained. The matter of publishing the ordinances was taken up, and after some discussion, the proposition made jointly by the editors of the RUSTLER and Beacon, to each publish the ordinances during the term of the board at one legal rate, was accepted by a vote of 4 to 1. The chair then recommended for appointment as delegates to the Albuquerque railroad convention to be held on the 18th inst., Messrs. W. H. Kennedy, Chas. F. Easley, W. C. Rogers, D. D. Harkness and H. C. Kinsell. Adjourned to meet tonight.
